

French 101

Taught by Moi

A large, solid dark blue shape that starts from the bottom left corner and extends diagonally upwards towards the right, covering the bottom half of the slide.

Introduction to French

Les salutations françaises: common greetings for a new speaker

Bonjour - hello

Comment ça va ? - how are you?

Comment vous appelez-vous/ tu t'appelles ? - what's your name?

Je m'appelle... - my name is

Au revoir- goodbye

À plus tard - see you later

À demain - see you tomorrow

Salut - hi

Bonne nuit - good night

Merci - thank you

De rien - you're welcome

Verb Conjugations: to have and to be

- Avoir - one of the most important french verbs (to have)

How to conjugate:

J'ai nous avons

Tu as vous avez

il/elle a ils/elles ont

- Être - arguably the most important verb (to be)

How to conjugate:

Je suis nous sommes

Tu es vous êtes

il/elle est ils/elles sont

L'Alphabet en français

A (ah) B (bé) C (cé) D (dé) E (eh) F (effe) G (gé) H (ache) I (ee) J(ji) K (ka) L (elle) M (emme) N (enne) O (o) P (pé) Q (qu) R (erre) S (esse) T (té) U (u) V (vé) W (double vé) X (ixe) Y (i grec) Z (zed)

Makeup 101– Taught by me

- The Art of Makeup

- Makeup is not just about enhancing beauty but also a form of artistic expression.
- It involves various techniques and products to accentuate features and create different looks.
- From everyday natural makeup to glamorous special occasion looks, there's a wide range of possibilities.

Slide 2

- Essential Makeup Tools

- Brushes: Essential for precise application of products like foundation, eyeshadow, and blush.
- Sponges: Ideal for blending foundation and concealer seamlessly into the skin.
- Palettes: Offer a variety of colors for eyeshadow, blush, and contouring, allowing for versatility in looks.

Slide 3

Tips for Beginners

- Getting Started

- Start with the basics: Invest in quality products for skincare and makeup application.
- Practice makes perfect: Experiment with different techniques and looks to find what suits you best.
- Seek inspiration: Follow makeup tutorials online and learn from makeup artists to expand your skills.

Thank you!